

Ellen Kahler

Ellen Kahler became the Executive Director of the Vermont Sustainable Jobs Fund (VSJF) in late 2005. She is a graduate of Bucknell University in Pennsylvania with a BA in Political Science and from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University with a Masters in Public Administration. VSJF provides business assistance, value chain facilitation, network development, and strategic planning in agriculture and food systems, forest products, waste management, renewable energy, and environmental technology. VSJF manages the Farm to Plate Network, the Forest Products Industry Network and the Climate Economy Business Network. Ms. Kahler serves on the Board of Directors of Energy Action Network, the Working Lands Enterprise Fund, and the State Workforce Development Board.