

Chris Loso

Christopher is Vice President of Loso's Professional Janitorial Services, Inc., serving since 2012. Previously, he worked as a business management consultant for over 20 years in New York City and Washington, DC at BearingPoint (formerly KPMG Consulting), Deloitte and Booz Allen Hamilton. Christopher also worked for former U.S. Senator James M. Jeffords in the Washington, DC office, as well as at the U.S. Office of Management & Budget (OMB). Christopher was appointed to the Governor's Committee on the Employment of People with Disabilities in 2012, serving as Chair from 2014-2016. He is also a member of the Vermont Business Roundtable. He serves on the Board for Lund and the Development Committee of the Community Health Centers of Burlington. Christopher has been a faculty member at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs since 2003, teaching courses on organizational improvement.