

Jill Mazza Olson

Jill Mazza Olson is a seasoned association leader, health policy expert, and advocate. In the fall of 2016, she assumed the role of Executive Director of the VNAs of Vermont, a nine-member association of non-profit home care and hospice agencies that serve all Vermonters. She formerly served as the Vice President of Policy and Legislative Affairs at the Vermont Association of Hospitals and Health Systems. Jill is a demonstrated leader in health care policy, with broad expertise about topics like health care reform and payment reform; quality improvement and patient safety; and mental health and substance abuse.

Jill holds a master's degree in public administration from Columbia University and has spent most of her career focused on health care and government relations. She has worked in settings as diverse as Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Vermont and Rikers Island Health Services in New York City.
