

John Russell III

John is the President of Russell Construction Services, Vermont's oldest General Contractor. He is also the managing partner representing the family's interests in two independent living communities, and one assisted living facility. The Gables at East Mountain, Equinox Village and The Meadows at East Mountain respectively.

John is currently serving as the Board President for the Rutland Economic Development Corporation.

Prior to joining the family businesses John served as an Officer in the United States Marine Corps.

John was born and raised in Rutland, Vermont graduating from Rutland High School in 1985. John then attended the University of Vermont graduating in 1989 with a BS in Civil Engineering.

John has a son, Johann, who is currently studying engineering at Virginia Tech.