

DAVE WHEEL

Dave is a retired Army Officer, having served in the Regular Army and on Active Duty with the Vermont Army National Guard for over 20 years. He received a BA from UVM, and a Masters' degree from St. Michael's College. Dave is a Certified HR Professional and was previously employed for several years at Dartmouth College. He is in his 10th year serving our nation's citizen service members (National Guard and Reserves), their employers, and spouses, working for the Vermont Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve and National Guard Employment Support Programs (as a DoD Contractor.) Dave has three adult children and, although a native Vermonter for well over 50 years, currently lives with his wife, Pamela, in Claremont, NH.
